"As the Deer"

Charles Mallory, Associate Pastor, Motley Free Methodist Church

Many Churches around the world have sung, in worship, the song "As the Deer." This song reflects the words of Psalm 42:1-2, that reads, "As the deer longs for streams of water, so I long for you, O God. I thirst for God, the living God. When can I go and stand before him?"

In the song, we sing the words, "I love you more than any other, so much more than anything." That is why we must ask "do I really thirst for the living God?" "Do I really want him more than anything in this world or love him more than anybody I love?"

The deer, in the song and Scripture, is panting due to extreme thirst and is showing outward, physical signs of intense need as it desperately wants the water and has nothing more on its mind. Its sole passion is to "seek and find" the water.

Have you advanced in your faith-walk to the point where your love for God is so deep that you simply can't wait to spend "alone time" with Him? Has your relationship with God grown so deeply that your time with him is now the greatest priority of your day?

God has put a thirst for himself into every person. May everything associated with your life and how you live that life (daily) include God to the point that it awakens within your soul a craving for intimate fellowship with the living God. Are you thirsting for God? Jesus said, in John 7:37, "Let anyone who is thirsty come to me and drink."
