The Original Christmas Tree

Pastor Nathan Hillman, Thomastown Covenant Church, Staples

Just outside our church's sanctuary windows, there once stood a great basswood tree. For many years it towered beautifully alongside the building. Eventually it grew old, lost its health and was cut down (before a storm could come along and throw that giant onto the church building). The stump was ground up all the way down below the surface of the earth. Wood chips were hauled away. Dirt was filled in over the hole and packed down. About a year later in the summer, shoots started to grow up out of the ground by the dozens. That old basswood still had life deep, down in its roots.

Isaiah once prophesied, A shoot will come up from the stump of Jesse; from His roots a branch will bear fruit. (Isaiah 11:1)

In this case, the old tree was the line of King David (son of Jesse), which was a disaster of failed kingdoms if you ever saw one. Failed. That's why it's called a stump. But God had a plan and there was still life in those roots, and eventually a shoot came up and grew into a tree bearing fruit greater than anything ever seen before. This tree, this life, was called Jesus. The original Christmas Tree! Like shoots out of the ground, Jesus comes up when you don't expect Him - bringing life, beauty and goodness. The good news is for every one of us that has ever known failure. Every one of us that has ever felt as-good-as-dead. Like a stump.

The good news is that, by being attached (grafted) to Jesus, new life and beauty and goodness will come to you and to me! Will you choose Life today?

"The time has come," [Jesus] said. "The kingdom of God has come near. Repent and believe the good news!" (Mark 1:15)
